

Accessible, Affordable and Very Flexible:
Transfer Opportunities at California's Non-Profit
Private Colleges and Universities

Getting To Know the Presenters

Why We Do What We Do, and Why We're Here

A Panel of Transfer Admission Counselors

University of the Pacific

Erica Delgado - Assistant Director
edelgado@pacific.edu

Dominican University of California

Dennis Yan - Assistant Director
dennis.yan@dominican.edu

University of San Francisco

Jon Rice - Associate Director
jfrice@usfca.edu

- “PCoC” for short (pronounced, “Peacock”)
- Association of California private colleges and universities established summer 2018
- 20 member schools and growing - All members are non-profit and WASC-accredited
- Goal: To educate and enable more students to learn about private schools as a viable option for their higher education needs.

Accessible

Dominican University of California

- 1,374 Undergraduate students. 354 transfer students on our campus
- Free Application
- 24 transferable units after high school.
- Holistic Review (Competitive GPA starting at 2.5)
- No Impacted Majors

University of San Francisco

- 6,700 undergraduates - 500 new transfers each year
- 40% first-generation college students
- 24 semester units + 2.50 GPA or higher
- No impacted programs,

University of the Pacific

- 4,682 Undergraduate Students; 220 transfers start every year; approximately 24% of undergraduate enrollment
- 28+ transferable units OR High School transcripts
- Holistic Review (Competitive GPA at a 2.5; Scholarship at 2.6 GPA)
- FREE Application
- No impacted majors

Affordable

University of the Pacific

Scholarship	Award Range	GPA Requirement
Academic Distinguished Scholarship	$18,000	Minimum 3.55
Academic Excellence Scholarship	$16,000	3.20 - 3.54
Academic Merit Scholarship	$14,000 - $16,000	3.0 - 3.19
Academic Achievement Scholarship	$12,000 - $14,000	2.60 - 2.99

University of San Francisco

Private colleges can offer reasonable financing for transfers.

- 74% of transfers received financial aid
- Merit scholarships for students above 3.00 GPA
- FAFSA + CA DREAM Act/CSS Profile

Dominican University of California

99% of our families receive aid

33% are Pell-Eligible

Scholarship	External Award Range*	GPA Requirement
Trustee Scholarship	$15,000-$20,000	Minimum 3.50
Presidential Scholarship	$12,000-$17,000	3.00-3.49
Dean's Scholarship	$10,000-$15,000	2.50-2.99

Very Flexible

University of San Francisco

ELIGIBILITY (NON-NURSES)

24
semester/
36 quarter
credits*

2.50+ cumulative college
GPA

In Good Standing

PREREQUISITE COURSES

No prerequisite courses required for admission.

Dominican University of California

- Fall and Spring Enrollments
 - Rolling Admissions
 - Nursing Deadline: Sept 1st for Spring and March 1st for Fall.
- More than 60 majors and minors.
- Students can double major on campus.

University of the Pacific

- Rolling admissions fall and spring terms
- 80+ majors and minors offered
 - One-year blended Master's options including Engineering and Business
- 28 transferable units OR submit a HS transcript
- 2.6 GPA; Holistic Review
- General Education and major core NOT required for admission

Your Questions?

Stay In Touch

Jonathan Rice, University of San Francisco - jfrice@usfca.edu

Erica Delgado, University of the Pacific - edelgado@pacific.edu

Dennis Yan, Dominican University of California - dennis.yan@dominican.edu